

NPA Sacramento Grand Opening This Thursday, May 16th

National Powersport Auctions Drops the Gate at Their New Sacramento Facility

Poway, CA, May 14, 2019 — May Day celebrates both the coming of spring and, since the Industrial Revolution, International Workers Day. May also marks the Grand Opening of National Powersport Auctions (NPA), 7th live auction facility located in Sacramento, California, on May 15-16, 2019. Dealers headed up to Hangtown for the start of the 2019 Motocross season or American Flat Track's Sacramento Mile this weekend should get the party started early at the Grand Opening with NPA; the industry leader for powersport auctions and re-marketing services.

“Food trucks and a happy hour are set for Wednesday’s preview day,” says Jim Woodruff, chief operating officer of NPA. “Auction day begins bright and early with doors opening at 8am and a catered breakfast. There will also be BBQ and drinks served in the afternoon.”

Woodruff suggests dealers making their trip to the races in Sacramento will pay for itself by taking in the grand opening auction. All first-time buyers attending NPA Sacramento live will get a buy fee credit (up to $350) for attending the grand opening auction. “And for all Harley-Davidson buyers we will apply a $100 transportation credit to all HDFS purchases,” Woodruff adds.

The latest in NPA’s growing family of facilities, the 38,000 sq./foot facility is strategically located to serve dealers in Northern California, the Pacific Northwest and Canada. However, if you can’t make the Grand Opening festivities in person, dealers can still participate via the magic of NPA Simulcast™. “Whether you are online or in person, NPA Sacramento has the inventory your looking for,” says Woodruff.
