

NPA SPOTTED IN PACIFIC NORTHWEST

Trevor Nicely Joins National Powersport Auctions' Sales Team

Poway, CA, July 18, 2017 — Forget Sasquatch... the latest sightings in the Pacific Northwest have been National Powersport Auctions (NPA) expanding its footprint. The world's largest provider of powersports remarketing services has added experienced professional Trevor Nicely to the team as regional sales manager. Most recently with Clem's in Enumclaw Powersports, Nicely is now serving the needs of all dealers in the Pacific Northwest.

"Trevor is a proven professional, but more importantly he has been on the other side of the counter at key dealerships in the region," says Mike Murray, NPA director of sales. "His understanding of what works... and what doesn't work for dealers in the Pacific Northwest is invaluable when it comes to increasing revenues utilizing NPA's tools and services."

"It's incredible that NPA has almost every brand and model bike under one roof, adds Nicely." Having worked at Destination Harley-Davidson, Tacoma Motorsports, Pro Caliber of Bend and Clem's, Nicely is a fan of all brands and styles of riding. In fact, his current stable of powersports vehicles includes a KTM EXC, a couple Ski Doo Summit for the snow and a Yamaha V-Star for cruising in the summer. "I have been hooked since I started riding my 1992 CBR 600 F2."

After starting as a lot attendant, Nicely worked his way up the ladder as a service writer, parts specialist, sales, sales management and finance management. "Working at dealerships has been a huge part of my life and I'm happy to share my passion with my friends and former co-workers in the Pacific Northwest." In a big footprint, Nicely is now calling on dealers in Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Wyoming, Montana and Alaska.
